

Centre for Canadian Irish Studies
Centre d'études canado-irlandaises

PRESENTS • PRÉSENTE

CATHERINE P. MacCARTHY

Irish Poet - poète irlandaise

WHO WILL READ FROM HER LATEST COLLECTION
QUI LIRA DES EXTRAITS DE SON DERNIER RECUEIL

"SUNTRAP"

November 20, 2007 at 8.30pm
Le 20 novembre 2007 à 20h30

Room / Salle : LB-646
McConnell Library Building
Pavillon de la bibliothèque McConnell
Université Concordia University
1400, boul. De Maisonneuve Ouest

Free Admission - Entrée libre

Catherine Phil MacCarthy is the author of four books of poems, a first joint-book and three collections: How High the Moon (Poetry Ireland/Co-Operation North, 1991); This Hour of the Tide (Salmon, 1994); the blue globe (Blackstaff Press, 1998); and Suntrap (Blackstaff Press, 2007). She has won prizes and awards and was editor of Poetry Ireland Review for 1998. She was writer in residence for the City of Dublin in 1994, and University College Dublin in 2002. She works regularly at the Irish Writers' Centre as a teacher of creative writing. Her first novel One Room an Everywhere was published in 2003.

Catherine Phil MacCarthy est l'auteure de quatre recueils de poésie, How High the Moon (Poetry Ireland/Co-Operation North, 1991), publié en collaboration, et This Hour of the Tide (Salmon, 1994), the blue globe (Blackstaff Press, 1998) et Suntrap (Blackstaff Press, 2007). Récipiendaire de nombreux prix et distinctions, elle a été directrice de la Poetry Ireland Review en 1998. Elle a été écrivaine en résidence pour la Ville de Dublin en 1994 et au University College, à Dublin également, en 2002. Elle enseigne régulièrement la création littéraire au Irish Writers' Centre. Son premier roman, One Room an Everywhere, a été publié en 2003.

Concordia
UNIVERSITY

(514) 848-8711

cdnirish@alcor.concordia.ca

<http://cdnirish.concordia.ca>